Executive Leadership Program

Executive Fellows Program

Shape organisational change that benefits the communities you serve

Empower your inner leader with this respected program designed specifically for high performing leaders and public sector senior executives. Our Executive Fellows Program invites you to explore leadership themes through the lens of contemporary issues, including “The Invisible society”, international volatility, and First Nations leadership.

Get into the nitty gritty of leadership

Focus on three key leadership themes: leading the self and others, leading an organisation, and systems leadership. Explore frameworks and strategies you can apply in your workplace right away.

See the bigger picture

Zoom out to examine the real-world forces impacting leaders today, including the media, international relations and the spectre of war.

Build a powerful professional network

Connect with public sector professionals from across Australia, Aotearoa New Zealand and globally in sessions that encourage interaction and cross-jurisdictional learning.

Learn from leaders in the field

Learn through frank and open discussions with a renowned cast of academics and senior public sector leaders, including strategy and organisational development expert Robin Ryde.
